ADEPTIA AUTOMATE FOR INSURANCE

The Intelligent Data Automation™ Platform

Turn first-mile data™ into intelligent business operations with Adeptia Automate.

First-mile data is the messy, irregular data created outside your company's four walls — data that's critical for your business operations, but ingesting and transforming it into a usable format takes months of manual work. It's time for a new approach.

Adeptia's end-to-end integration platform simplifies data transactions across your ecosystem of customers, partners, and applications. Ingest data in any format and automatically integrate it into downstream processes and workflows up to 80% faster than traditional integration methods.
